

Capability Statement

Armada Defense Distributors, Inc (ADD) is a veteran-owned small family business based in Florida. ADD offers a range of services related to emergency response, disaster recovery (DR), continuity of operations (COOP), and large quantities of food. We are grounded in traditional values, and built on community partnerships that believe in open conversations, thoughtful insights, and cost-effective implementation.

As we also live in one of the most hurricane-prone areas in Florida, we perfectly know the damages these natural catastrophes and superstorms can cause to people, their homes, and values. Our own experience gives us unique insight into how better serve our communities. Among other goods and supplies, we help people in need with a number of products from water, prepackaged meals, and frozen produce to batteries, flashlights, first aid kits, tarps, and generators. Socio-economic: Veteran-Owned Small Business Certification.
